

Engaging, Insightful, Full of Faith. These are a few words used to describe Pastor Brian James Edmonds. Pastor Edmonds has a passion for the Kingdom of God and desires to use every aspect of his life to inspire faithful followers of Jesus Christ. He is honored to serve as the Senior Pastor of the Macedonia Church of Pittsburgh (MCOP), where he has led spiritual renewal and cultural transformation since 2012.

Pastor Edmonds was born and raised in Baltimore, MD where he was licensed to preach the Gospel by the Central Baptist Church. In 2006, Pastor Edmonds earned a Master of Divinity Degree from the Duke University Divinity School and was ordained by the American Baptist Churches of the South. He completed his undergraduate studies in Engineering at the University of Virginia. Meanwhile, God was crafting him to be a “social engineer” who would impact cultures for the Kingdom of God.

Pastor Edmonds seeks to use all means of ministry to ignite a fire of faith that cannot be extinguished by the darkness of this depraved world. This fire continues to lead to the transformation of hearts, families, communities and even nations. His ministry has led him to preach, teach, and inspire people throughout the U.S., Central America, Africa, and the Middle East. While his ministry has led him across the country and around the globe, Pastor Edmonds is careful not to neglect the places where he is presently planted. As God has called him to many different areas of ministry, he continues to believe that “Faithful is He who calls, and He will also bring it to pass” (1 Thess. 5:24).

Pastor Edmonds is convinced that his impact on the world is firmly rooted in the love, support, and guidance that he has received from his family, mentors, and friends. He is privileged and honored to be married to Pastor Dionne Edmonds and to partner with her in life and ministry. They are blessed to be the parents of three children, Zoë, Eden, and Levi.
