*Words That Move Us
From Believer to Disciple*

BY MY SPIRIT

*Formed
Week 4
Glenn Campbell*

KEY POINTS

- God's work in believers is accomplished by His Spirit, not by human might or power.
- Light and life are interconnected themes throughout Scripture, from creation through Christ.
- God performs three inward works: regeneration of the heart, revival of identity and purpose, and restoration of broken beliefs.
- Inspiration without formation leads to frustration; both Spirit and Word are necessary together.
- Jesus declared "I am the light of the world" and gives believers the light of life.
- Believers are called to be outwardly useful witnesses after God's inward cleansing work.
- Three essential spiritual practices: quiet stillness, listening for God's whisper, and delighting in the Lord.
- God delights over His children with singing even as He calls them to delight in Him.
- The blocking and tackling basics of faith are more important than complex religious activities.
- Living an elevated life requires combining spiritual inspiration with biblical formation.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. How does the concept of 'not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit' challenge our culture's emphasis on self-reliance and personal achievement?
2. What does it mean practically for you to 'be still and know that I am God' in the midst of your current season of life?
3. How can we create space in our overscheduled lives to hear the 'still small voice' or whisper of God?
4. How does understanding that God delights over you with singing change the way you approach prayer and your relationship with Him?
5. What 'spiritual commas' or intentional pauses do you need to build into your daily rhythm to prevent living in constant motion?
