rM AT NORTH WAY

12121 Perry Highway
Wexford, PA 15090
724.935.6800
northway.org

What is the Recovery Matters Group?

- We are a ministry of people who have experienced the transforming power of Jesus Christ in our lives, the one who has freed us from the bondage of our addictions and compulsive behaviors. We meet here weekly to share our experiences with others, and to strengthen our faith and our personal relationship with God so that we may all come to know the joy of living a life of freedom guided by the Holy Spirit.
- We provide resources each week to help you in your decision to be freed from addiction, compulsive behaviors, and to help you to know, experience, and deepen your relationship with God. Our goal is to provide a time of encouragement, sharing and information about recovery, God's plan, purpose, and identity for each of us, tools to help you reach your goals and understand yourself better, and hope that you will eventually grow your own personal relationship with God and find help from someone you choose to mentor you.
- We suggest that you regularly attend recovery meetings. One we suggest is Hope Recovery Group which meets Wednesdays at 7pm with a meal at 6:30pm at Travelers Church in Moon Twp. They also have a group at the same time for Friends and Family of Addiction. See us after the meeting for the address! (965 Thorn Run Rd. Moon Twp.)
- We all had help with our recovery process and we want the same for you. We know from experience that finding someone you are comfortable being mentored by is critical to your success in the recovery process!
- If you need help finding the right person, we can connect you with someone from our group; or point you to resources where you can find people who are willing to mentor you through your recovery process.
- If you are new to Recovery Matters, please see one of our groups leaders after our meeting.

Again, we meet here every week and we are EXTREMELY GRATEFUL that each of you are here, and we hope that you will KEEP COMING BACK!!! We believe that recovery is fundamentally a process of repentance, spiritual growth, deeper connection, and a relationship with The Heavenly Father. God continues to use our past and present experiences to help us understand ourselves better and to deepen our relationship with Him. He has provided this group as a tool and support system that will help us to recognize and experience the power of His Holy Spirit in our lives. God has repeatedly proven that he is more than powerful enough to deliver us from our addictions, compulsions, and sinful ways of living. He is the ultimate redeemer, and for that we are grateful and give Him all the glory & praise.

If you are willing, we absolutely know this process will work and we offer our changed lives as evidence of His grace. During our time together, we openly share our successes, failures, strengths, weaknesses, hopes and frustrations so that God can use our experience to help all of us to draw closer to Him. In fact, we have found that God uses our current individual struggles and concerns to guide our group discussions.